SECOND CRASH FOLLOWED.

Train Had Scarcely Started to Resume Its Journey When the Engine Jumped the Track at High Rate of Speed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 28 .- The St. Louis fiyer from New York, running over the Lake Shore Division of the New York Central road, left the tracks a half mile west of Avon early to-day and plunged over a high embankment. Although the train was broken in sections, some of the cars rolling down the hill, only three passengers were dangerously hurt, a dozen others being cut, bruised and badly shaken up.

tempting to Kiss Mrs. Hook.

Tarael Harris, dealer in glass at No. 76 West Houston street, has been troubled by reports from Middletown, N. Y., that he had been sued by Mrs. Hook, of that place, for damages for attempting to kiss her. Mr. Harris declares that some other man of his name must be the defendant in the suit, as he has never heard of the woman and was never in heard of the woman and was never in Middletown.

"Many of my friends have asked me about the case as a result of the Mid-dletown reports," he said to-day. "I have explained to them that it has nothing to do with me, but the story has annoyed me considerably. My father and I have been in business a long time and nothing of this kind has ever happened to us before. There is not the slightest foundation for connecting me with the story.

"As a matter of fact I do not know where Mid cown is, have never been there and so could not have seen this woman there."

the Ball Never Touched Her.

"I've shot my wife!" shouted a breathess young man who darted into the Gates avenue station, Brooklyn, with a revolver in his hand. He gave the name of Fred Edwards and told how the murder had been done at No. 223 Madison street. Two policemen sent there found a young woman in a faint on the doorsteps and the glass of the vestibule door shattered by a bullet.

Another Stirring Clothing Sale.

We've held a number of good Clothing Sales—good for you; good for us. And now we come forward with another. It will be the best we've ever held, and should be the biggest and most successful. We haven't had Clothing weather—that you know. That's a condition sadly bad for Clothing manufacturers. When they should have clear decks—their tables are piled high. They're confronted with a dilemma —wait for Old Boreas and King Frost, or accept a cash offering? Which? We've found two merchants who accepted the latter course. Result-great gain to the consumer through the channel of the Simpson Crawford Clothing Establishment.

Therefore we offer you
